Dear WCS Community,

Prior to the start of school this morning, the Warren Mott High School Administration responded to an online threat to the school that was received from OK2SAY. The investigation with the support of law enforcement quickly led to two students who admitted to posting the threat, and they have been removed from school.

In a separate matter, the Warren Police alerted us to a social media post that warned students about a possible threat to schools that were not clearly identified but were rumored to include Cousino High School and Carter Middle School. After review with law enforcement, this threat was non-credible and was also received by other school districts.

Parents, please use this opportunity to talk with your children about saying and posting things online that will most certainly get them into trouble. Despite our best efforts, some students simply do not understand the severity of their actions.

If you have any questions, please contact the school.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Livernois, Ph.D.
Superintendent
